

Cooper Homes, Inc.

For those of you who are less familiar with us, in our role as the homebuilding division of Cooper Communities, Inc. (CCI), Cooper Homes has stayed very busy through the years, building homes in some of the most desirable locations and planned communities in the country. A renowned, stable homebuilder, Cooper Homes enjoys a hard-earned reputation for high-quality construction, service after the sale, and their own personal 2/10 homeowners warranty. A company dedicated to providing peace of mind at every stage; from plan selection, to the latest features and options, all the way through to helping you choose the right finishing touches, Cooper Homes has the experience to bring it all together into one rewarding experience.

Based in Rogers, Arkansas, CCI has been in operation for over 54 years and has been involved in projects across eight states. A family-owned company, CCI has closely managed their performance through the many up and down cycles of the real estate and development industry and has so far attracted more than 130,000 owners to its planned communities and resorts.
